NATION FACES FINAL LIBERTY LOAN TEST TODAY

Designated National Holiday
By President Wilson

Business Will Be at Standstill Thruout Nation, Except for Sale of Liberty Bonds—Not More Than Half of Amount Hoped for Has Been Raised.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Tomorrow, Liberty Day by proclamation of President Wilson, the nation faces the test of determining whether the second liberty loan of 1917 shall roll up an overwhelming success. It faces the greatest day of the campaign with not more than half of the $5,000,000,000 hoped for actually subscribed according to careful estimates compiled by treasury officials tonight. Two and one half billion dollars, they estimate must be obtained in subscriptions in the four days that remain. The field force of 2,000,000 workers will be reinforced tomorrow by speakers including members of the cabinet, former President Taft, William J. Bryan, Speaker Clark, and other nationally known orators.

Business will be well nigh at a standstill thruout the nation tomorrow, except for the sale of liberty bonds. Designated a national holiday by President Wilson the day has also been made a holiday by governors of the various states. Business houses and schools will be closed; thousands of speakers will deliver addresses and hundreds of thousands of new workers will join for the day the army of 2,000,000 soldiers already in the field.

These workers will carry the call of the nation with special emphasis to the farmer. The farmers have been invited by the hundred thousand to come to town and attend Liberty Loan rallies and workers also are going into the country to solicit subscriptions.

Returns from all federal districts show that at the beginning of business today subscriptions of $1,501,392,156 had been officially reported to them. A treasury statement tonight, "unofficial figures indicate that an estimate of $2,500,000,000 for all sales appears to be conservative.

Briefly stated, then, the situation tonight is that the $3,000,000,000 minimum quota set for the loan at the outset of the campaign will be passed tomorrow. Liberty day subscriptions comes up to conservative expectations. The maximum total of $5,000,000,000 is far distant, however. To attain it by the close of the sale Saturday will be a feat worthy of the best mettle.

Official totals of the various districts follow:

New York	$609,630,000
Boston	184,200,000
Cleveland	183,750,000
Minneapolis	63,250,000
Richmond	63,189,650
Chicago	185,203,000
St. Louis	45,522,000
San Francisco	67,234,000
Philadelphia	44,979,400
Kansas City	26,151,000
Dallas	16,130,600
Atlanta	12,962,100

Liberty Watch Fires.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Liberty watch fires gleamed the country over tonight, the eve of Liberty Day. Under the direction of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee the fires were lighted from Florida to the Canadian border and from coast to coast. In several states the governors lighted the principal fires which were made the occasion of patriotic demonstrations. Here in the national capital, a roaring bonfire, fed by fagots from historic spots in many states was lighted at the base of the Washington monument by Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, wife of the secretary of the treasury.

Virtually the entire population of the city witnessed the unusual scene from their homes. Mrs. Wilson and Miss Wilson braved the rain to see it. Fuel from many historic spots went into the great pile upon which the flames fed. It came in fagots, splinters and shavings from the president's boyhood home in Georgia, the old Lincoln home in Illinois, Cleveland's birthplace in New Jersey, Custer's Headquarters in North Dakota, the Aztec house, near Roosevelt dam in Arizona and from Grant's House in Missouri.

LANDING OF GERMANS ONLY A MILITARY DEMONSTRATION

Petrograd, Oct. 23.—A semi-official communication published in the Petrograd newspapers says in effect that the landing of the Germans near Werdor is regarded only as a military demonstration to cover an enemy landing on the coast of the Riga Gulf, probably between Pernau and Hainasch. It also is said that the German retirement toward the Skull-Lemburg line is a maneuver to draw the Russian troops nearer Riga with the intention of attacking them from the rear.

Liberty Day

Secretary McAdoo Issues Statement to the People of the United States

This is Liberty Day in the United States made so by proclamation of the president and governors of the forty-eight states of the American Union. Would that it were Liberty Day for all the peoples of the world. Let us make it an ominous day for the German kaiser. Let us make it the beginning of the end of military despotism and inhuman warfare.

A few days ago one of the kaiser's undersea assassins destroyed the American Transport Antilles, killing many of America's gallant sons. The kaiser must answer for this crime. He must be made to feel the prick of American bayonets. Let us remember the Antilles. Let us never stop nor falter until this infamous apostle of brutalized warfare, the kaiser, is brought to justice.

To the families of the soldiers and sailors who were killed on the Antilles this war was made personal. * * * *

Today let every American realize that this is a personal war between every American and the German kaiser. The kaiser has brought it to every American home, whether it be the home of a German-American citizen or any other American citizen. The kaiser does not spare German Americans. He fights all Americans and all Americans must fight him. Today the American public is on trial. The eyes of the world are upon her—the eyes of the oppressed peoples of the earth with hope and expectancy, the eyes of the military autocracy of Germany with outward contempt but inward fear.

Our first duty is not only to subscribe, but to oversubscribe the second liberty loan. If we fail, it will be a victory for the kaiser.

To accomplish this great task all must pull together. * * * * If each does his part, if everyone is animated by superlative love of country and resolute purpose we can finance every requirement of the government and win this mighty war quickly and save thousands of precious American lives and a vast amount of American treasure. * * * *

It is our soldiers, our sailors and our guns that are going to win the victory, vindicate America's rights at home and upon the high seas. * * * *

The last service of patriotism that any man or woman who stays at home can perform is to lend their money to his or her own government on impregnable security at four per cent.

They risk nothing, while the soldier risks all. * * * *

The failure of one liberty loan would destroy the government's credit, undermine confidence, imperil prosperity and disgrace us in the eyes of the world. The patriotic people of the forty-eight states of the union must make such a disaster impossible.

When the sun sets on the evening of Liberty Day ten million Americans should have registered their subscriptions to the second Liberty Loan.

SINN FEINER ARRESTED BY SECRET SERVICE AGENTS

Officers Arrest Leader in New York Tuesday

Liam Mellows and Associate, Baron Recklinghausen, a German, Are Taken in Custody—German Internated for Duration of War.

New York, Oct. 23.—Liam Mellows, one of the recognized leaders in the Sinn Fein rebellion in Ireland on Easter Monday, 1916, and an associate, Baron Dr. Max von Recklinghausen, a German subject are under arrest in this city it was announced today by William J. Flynn, chief of the United States secret service. The arrests were made on the eve of an announcement by Premier Lloyd George in the house of commons that the British government had knowledge of another plot to land arms in Ireland.

Mellows is charged with obtaining false papers to enable him to leave the United States as an American seaman.

Von Recklinghausen styled by Flynn as a "patent engineer of no little ability" has been turned over to federal authorities for internment during the war. He is declared to have been an intimate associate of Sinn Feiners. A statement issued by Flynn said papers found in von Recklinghausen's rooms and on his person show definitely that large sums of money had gone forward to France for ultimate German purposes.

Mellows was arrested Monday night in possession of a seaman's passport made out in the name of "Patrick Donnelly" and which it is believed he intended to use in returning to Ireland at the earliest opportunity. After the failure of the Irish revolution last year, Mellows made his way to the United States by shipping as a coal heaver, according to Flynn's statement. Secret service agents learned that Mellows and Dr. Patrick McCarton, known to his Sinn Fein associates in this country as "the first ambassador of the United States of the Irish republic," plotted to return to Ireland and McCarton shipped on an American steamship leaving New York last Wednesday, the statement said. On advice from New York secret service men, McCarton was arrested at Halifax and now is being held there pending prosecution for his complicity in the Dublin riots and his activities in this country since early last year, according to Flynn.

GERMAN PEOPLE
EXPECT PEACE SOON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—An Italian workman interned in Germany since the beginning of the war has escaped thru the Alps to his own country with a report that the German people want peace and expect it to come in November. Official despatches received here today tell the man's story, according to which the Germans have abandoned hope of victory at arms. Laborers are threatening to leave the factories if the war continues another winter and the civil population generally is living under terrible conditions. He said eight hundred soldiers attending a circus at Essen were killed at one time by bombs of allied aviators.

CITY CANNOT REGULATE THEATRE PRICES

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 23.—That a theater is private property and the prices to be paid for tickets thereto cannot be regulated by ordinance was the substance of a decision of the supreme court today in the case of the Cort Theater of Chicago against Mayor Thompson. The court held that the city of Chicago had no right to enforce an ordinance requiring theaters to print set prices on its tickets and to charge nothing in addition to the prices named. When the Cort Theater violated such an ordinance its license was taken away.

IS NOT PERMITTED TO TRY HIS "CURE"

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Miss Irene Conrad, a former Cedar Rapids, Ia., school teacher, is in a hospital here today with a stroke of paralysis, while Paul Meade, who has a marriage license for his wedding with her, is in the Psychopathic hospital under observation. Police attention was directed to the case last night, when Meade appeared at the office of the chief of police and talked about trying to cure his fiancée by choking her. He complained that he was not permitted to try his cure.

War News Summarized

While the allied troops were consolidating positions won Monday in Flanders the French forces of General Petain struck a mighty blow against the German line northeast of Soissons Tuesday morning and made some of the most important gains of terrain since they threw back the army of the German Crown Prince which was besieging Verdun.

The stroke was made over a front of about six miles from the east of Vauxillon to Pargny-Filain. Under unfavorable weather conditions the French pushed forward all along the line aided by aviators who flew over the German positions at an altitude of about 150 feet, using their machine guns and penetrated the German line at one point to a depth of two and a fifth miles.

Numerous important positions fell into the hands of General Petain's men and in addition more than 7,500 Germans, an enormous amount of war material and 25 heavy guns were captured. The greatest depth of the drive was in the center of the line where the village of Chavignon was captured after a violent struggle. Some of the best troops in the army of the German crown prince were engaged in endeavoring to hold back the onslaught.

For about a week the French artillery had been hurling tons of steel into the German line on the front of them preparing for the drive. When it started havoc had been played.

In addition to the prisoners taken by the French, the Germans also suffered heavy casualties. In Flanders both the British and French troops are holding all the gains made in Monday's drive northeast of Ypres.

The latest advices concerning the naval activity in the Gulf of Riga between the Germans and the Russians show that the Germans lost two of their dreadnaughts, one cruiser, twelve torpedo boats, one transport and numerous mine sweepers were put out of action by the Russian fleet. While the exact fate of these vessels has not been ascertained by the Petrograd government it is announced that at least six of the German destroyers were sunk.

Further German attempts to land forces on the Esthonia coast to the north of Werdor have been repulsed by Russian detachments. On the other fronts no important engagements are in progress except in the nature of bombardments. On the Julian front of the Austro-Italian theater the artillery activity again has become intense. An Austrian attack with infantry in the Cadore region was repulsed by the Italians with heavy losses.

The British Merchant Cruiser Oram, a vessel of 12,927 tons, has been sunk by a submarine and a British destroyer has been lost in a collision. There was no loss of life on the Oram.

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 23.—General Eduardo Chavez and his staff arrived in Juarez, opposite here today enroute to Sonora to take the field against Yaqui Indians in revolt in that state. General Chavez will be supplied with a command upon his arrival in Sonora.

Bayonet, Representative Believes.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Kentucky's blue grass region, on the edge of one of the richest coal fields in the country, virtually is without coal. Representative Cantrill of Kentucky, told the fuel administration today. He said that if necessary, the Kentucky mines, where there were recent strikes, should be operated at the point of the bayonet.

Mr. Cantrill presented a telegram from his home town of Georgetown, which said that snow was falling and there was not a lump of coal in the place. Similar conditions prevail thruout his district, he said.

The circuit court of Sangamon county found against the bonding company which furnished Hart's bond, and the supreme court affirmed the judgment.

Blows of the War

Invasion German Line North of Alsace
More Than Two Miles at One Point—Take More than 7,500
Prisoners and Many Heavy Guns.

Paris, Oct. 23.—In one of the swiftest and most dashing blows of the war, the French troops today smashed thru the German lines north of the Alsace to a depth of more than two miles at one point, inflicted heavy losses on the enemy and captured more than 7,500 prisoners and 25 heavy guns and field guns.

Several important villages also fell into the hands of the French according to the war office announcement today.

"Pushing their advance still further, our troops after a desperate engagement drove the enemy out of the quarries of Montparnesse, which had been partly crushed by our big shells."

"On the left our progress was continued with the same success the villages of Allement and Vaudes, on the left, remaining in our power, while on the right our troops carried their line on to the heights dominating Pargny-Filain."

"Finally, in the center, our troops drove fresh enemy reserves helter-skelter and captured in a violent struggle the village of Chavignon. At this point our advance reached a depth of three and a half kilometres (about two and a fifth miles.)"

"The number of prisoners counted up to the present exceeds 7,500. In the enormous amount of material captured we have counted twenty five heavy and field cannon."

AUGUST RAILWAY NET
REVENUES DECREASE

Approximately $8,000,000 Less Than in Corresponding Month Last Year
—Figures Cover All Roads.

Washington, Oct. 23.—August railway net revenues which will be used by the railroads to support their claims for a rate increase were less by approximately $8,000,000 than in August, 1916. This reduction in income was shown in the face of an increase of approximately $38,000,000 in gross revenues. The figures cover all roads in the country.

Gross revenues for all roads the compilation shows were $365,055,208 as compared with $326,950,719 a year ago, an increase of approximately thirteen per cent. Operating expenses however rose from $203,307,968 to $246,128,383 an increase of more than twenty percent, leaving net revenues of $118,926,916 about $4,700,000 less than a year ago.

Operating income, representing net revenues after the deduction of taxes and uncollectable items, for last August totalled $101,884,981, as compared with $109,869,815. These figures show that the railroads of the country at this rate, which is regarded as a fair average for the year will have an aggregate net income of approximately $1,200,000,000 in 1917.

TELLS OF DEPORTING
GERMAN PRISONERS

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Henry P. Duke, chief secretary for Ireland, said today in the house of commons that last February the British government deported prisoners from Ireland and because Germany again was offering a helping hand to the Sinn Feiners.

The belief was expressed by Mr. Duke that the convention was on the eve of a solution of its problems. He announced that while the constitution was in the making the government would do its utmost to avoid the policy of making arrests which he considered as likely only to help the secessionist propaganda.

Mr. Duke declared that the recent trouble in Ireland, had arisen because the convention was doing well and the Sinn Fein leaders wish it to fail. He said the government intended to do its utmost to prevent criminal acts with such intention.

WILL SOON NEED A NEW DICTIONARY.

The war is bringing to our attention new words and phrases which hitherto had little meaning for us whatsoever. One of the words most used, especially in the correspondence of Ambassador Bernstorff, is "sabotage." The following is the definition of "sabotage" as given by the new Standard dictionary:
"The act of cutting shoes for sockets in rails in railroad ties. By extension the act of tying up a railroad by malicious damage. Hence, any poor work or other damage done by dissatisfied workmen; also the act of producing it; plant wrecking."

AN EFFICIENT MACHINE.

War does wonders in wiping out old grudges of a partisan political nature. One of the first acts of the Wilson administration was to derive the National City Bank of New York of its usurped right to maintain a desk in the treasury building in Washington. President Frank Vanderlip, so well known here, has been a rather bitter critic of the financial department of the Government. In the last four years, though now that he is connected with the department in an important capacity, it is not surprising to hear his testimony that "in the treasury department we have today a machine of wonderful efficiency."

CITY MANAGERS.

A plan to provide a new plan of government for Chicago has been prepared by the bureau of public efficiency. The word city manager it not used in the measure. The council reduced to 35 members, would elect the mayor who would be the real business as well as the ceremonial head of the city. Chicago would do well to look to New York's admirable system where the real power rests with the mayor and the board of estimate, made up of the controller and the heads of the several boroughs. The board of aldermen has been reduced to a joke. Ne-work, N. J., last week adopted the commission plan by an overwhelming majority. The work of modernizing city governments goes on.

ON THE RUN?

Marshal Haig's policy has been to advance only when strategic advantage would warrant the loss of lives which drives cost. The rain which has converted the Flanders battlefield into a sea of mud made the military prophets confident that the offensive would be halted for the present. But the British still drive on, upsetting all expert calculations.

Such bulldog aggressiveness has amazed the allied world. Does it mean that Haig has them on the run?
In view of his known cautiousness, it certainly seems so. Otherwise there is little apparent reason for the sacrifices undergone. The Philadelphia Ledger says that mathematical probabilities of warfare can be fairly well reckoned, but there is no mathematics in the problem of morale. It is German morale that is primarily the British object now. No one knows when that delicately poised actor will go to pieces.

FROM PETROGRAD TO MOSCOW.

If the Russian government moves to Moscow, there need be no particular dismay over the change of capitals. For many reasons Moscow may prove a more fortunate seat of authority. Petrograd is too easily accessible to enemy agents to be an ideal place for deliberation. The abandonment of the city and even its occupation by the enemy is an idea made too familiar to the minds of most of us to occasion any shock should it become fact. The most serious possibility Russia faces is the loss of her Baltic navy, which, with the enemy in control of Petrograd and the Gulf of Finland, would have nowhere to go but to battle and probable destruction.

BERNHARDT CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt was 73 years old yesterday. France's woman of the hour, saddened but brave in the face of her country's trials, expressed her profound admiration for America.

"It is the American women who move me to such depths of gratitude as much as the men," she said.

"I am surprised at the spirit everywhere. The boys who are going to France, they too, I wish God speed America will win the war for France. We must win it."

Madame Bernhardt is living in her private car with a number of assisting artists and on her birthday appeared at a Davenport theatre in one of the performances of her ninth and farewell tour of America.
She was recently joined by her 17 year old grand daughter Mlle. Ly-lance daughter of Maurice Bernhardt.

Madame Bernhardt was in excellent health and entertained her associates at a birthday dinner in her car.

IOWA AND SALOONS.

Many citizens of Iowa are of the opinion that the defeat of the prohibition amendment in that state was after all a fruitless victory for the wets. That is, they do not gain by this vote, the right to open saloons.
At the present time there is a state prohibition law. It is within the province of a legislature to repeal this but the point is that this cannot be done until the next legislature meets and the legislature must then be of a composition to accomplish it. The press of Iowa seem to think that the ets cannot elect a legislature that will do this, so that in all probability the present dry law will remain indefinitely. The only thing that the ets did accomplish was to prevent the adoption of a constitutional amendment, which if it had passed would have put it out of the power of the legislature to change the constitution without in the future re-submitting the matter to a vote of the people.

The margin by which the wets carried the state was very narrow and affords no real encouragement for the wets, but at the same time it ought to show the drys the folly of such indifference and neglect.

NO MORE LOTTERY SELECTION.

Even after allowing a liberal discount for Provost Marshal General Crowder's enthusiasm over the simplicity of the forms to be filled out by the remaining registrants under the conscription law, the classification of the men as to dependency and industrial indispensableness will doubtless lessen the labors of exemption boards, bring a greater repose to the registrant and will be more to be considered, more nearly compact with the spirit of selective conscription than the methods employed in the first draft. The lottery is a fair method, when applied to persons occupying the same status. But it was not an effective method to use on all registrants ranging between the ages of 21 and 31. As we have often observed the single men, without dependents, should have been called first. That was impossible, under the drawing from the entire registration. The Globe-Democrat has always asserted that the effect was bad on popular opinion. The theory of selection was quite lost sight of and the problem became one of fairness to individuals. This overlooked the government's interest in the matters besides fighting, which is more important. The principal addresses of the evening were given by E. H.

Terry of Springfield, whose subject was "Education." Mrs. Daniels of Greenfield gave an interesting talk on "Problems of Women."

The program opened with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," by the community chorus.
Other numbers which interspersed the program were as follows: Reading, by Alfred Brockhouse. Vocal solo, Miss Lucile Fox. Violin solo, Arthur Perkin.

NOT LOOKING FOR WORK.

John Isaacs of the east part of the county was in the city along with some of his neighbors looking for corn huskers who seem to be scarce at this time. By request a man went into a place where there were 28 gentlemen of leisure amusing themselves in the various ways and told them they could get three dollars for helping on the street work and did not have to kill themselves either, but none responded, probably being rather tired.

MOTOR TOURISTS RETURN TO JACKSONVILLE

State Auditor Russel and Party Complete Trip Touching Three States.

State Auditor and Mrs. Andrew Russel and Mr. John Larson returned to Jacksonville late Tuesday evening after an extensive motor trip through Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky. When they left Jacksonville several days ago they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Robbins Russel of New York. The party first went to Ft. Benjamin Harrison near Indianapolis. Here they visited Mr. Russel's son, Lieut. Stuart Russel, who is stationed there as an officer in the quartermasters' corps. Lieut. Russel is in charge of one of the motor truck companies, a unit composed of fifty-nine men. The officers and men of the quartermasters' corps are expecting orders to leave for France at any time. They were ordered to leave for foreign service the 18th of this month but lack of equipment prevented their departure. This equipment has been received now and it is probable that they will soon be in the service of their country in France. The men composing the motor truck organization at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, number about 600. It is made up very largely of men from Detroit who have been employed in the motor manufacturing shops of that place, and who are therefore experts in that line of work.

Leaving Indianapolis the motorists journeyed southward, and their next stop was made at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky. On account of the size of the camp and the fact that the Morgan county men have been transferred so often since their arrival there, few of the local men were seen. The roads thru Illinois and Kentucky were reported as being very fine, especially the pike roads of Kentucky.

At Shelbyville, Ky., the party stopped to see Miss Eleanor Russel, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel, who is attending school at that place. Here Mr. and Mrs. Robbins Russel left the party, returning to their home in New York by rail, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Russel and Mr. Larson returning to Jacksonville by motor. In the trip, which was made in Mr. Russel's new Hudson Super Six Speedster, over 1300 miles was covered with no mechanical trouble of any kind, not even a puncture being experienced on the journey.

"Two things this work is going to do," the secretary said. "It will bring our soldiers back to us better citizens, and it will awaken in American cities a sense of responsibility and an opportunity that will go a long way towards solving the old, vexed problem of how best to make cities safe for the youth of our land."

Amid inky darkness, the French troops left their trenches and with a terrific barrage fire from the most powerful concentration of French guns ever gathered such a short front preceding them, made their way over the first German positions sweeping all resistance aside.

Altogether six German infantry divisions were aligned but none was able to withstand the onslaught.

J. M. CARWELL A SUCCESSFUL FARMER

Has Succeeded Well With Livestock and Sheep.

That it doesn't require a big farm to make a successful farmer is well demonstrated in the experience of J. M. Carwell, who resides a few miles northeast of the city. This gentleman has a pleasant home on 33 acres of land, altho in order to find enough occupation he rents some more. But the way he carries on his own farm shows that it is possible to cultivate land and have it even get better from year to year. One thing he has succeeded in which is rather unusual and that is sheep. Mr. Carwell is very partial to this humble animal and while he doesn't have a very large number, he thinks a great deal of those he has. He prefers the Shropshire and Oxford. He has tried the Cotswold but find the other breeds better. He keeps a flock of about 30 and says it is by far the easiest way to get rid of weeds and at the same time make good money. Every spring he culls the flock, selling the buck lambs and old ewes, and he says he gets $15 to $16 for a five months old lamb and wants to know where a person can do any better than that. He says when his sheep run along with the cattle he has but little trouble from dogs, especially if they can go along with cows which have calves at their sides. In that case those creatures make it very interesting for a dog who tries to do any mischief in the field.

Mr. Carwell also raises a number of calves, about ten or fifteen yearly. The cross cows he does not try to milk but puts the calves with them, generally two and sometimes three to a cow, and only milks one or two which are gentle and easily handled. He feeds his cattle very carefully and generally sells his calves when they are long yearlings, that is in the fall just after they are yearlings in the spring, and before feeding begins. He is also careful to shelter his stock and says he would rather have a good shelter for his cattle on half rations than feed them full rations and let them run in the cold. After the calves are weaned he begins to feed and he has a mill in which he grinds corn and cob and feeds that to the cows and calves, along with some oats, clover hay and fodder, and that with plenty of pasture, makes very good creatures and they sell at eighteen months of age at from $60 to $70, which is certainly profitable. In addition to that Mr. Carwell carefully feeds so as to get all the fertility possible from his cattle, and he says this last spring on his corn land he distributed 200 loads of manure to great advantage.

Mr. Carwell likes the Shorthorn cattle the best, as so many others do, and finds that they pay the best of any. For hogs he prefers the good old Poland Chinas, altho he has some Durocs. He doesn't raise a very great many of these. He prefers stationary sheds and takes very good care of his sows at the time of farrowing and turns them off in good shape, altho he pays rather more attention to cattle and sheep. In this manner he has succeeded very well and is a good example of intensive farming which he has found to be very profitable.

PERBIX FAMILY AMONG EARLY SETTLERS

Henry Perbix Settled Near Chapin Nearly a Century Ago—Descendants Numbered Among Most Prominent Residents of County—Have Been Successful in Farming.

In the early part of the last century an honest German named Geo. Perbix came to this county from the fatherland in order to better his condition. He settled two miles north of Chapin and went to work. While yet a comparatively young man he heard of the great fortunes to be made in California and with a company started out overland for the Pacific coast, taking three months for the journey. His was like the many other journeys that have been described. They went with ox teams, finding forage or pasture as they went, and in due time they arrived at the coast. Mr. Perbix was not given to gambling, drinking or foolishly spending money and he had fairly good luck, so that in time he found himself the possessor of $5,000 worth of gold dust which he very wisely decided to bring home. He did not have to work his way back across the plains, as he had money enough to go around by the isthmus, which was much easier than staging it across the country.

On his return Mr. Perbix went to work, bought land and reared his family, and now in his old age, being nearly ninety, is able to look back upon a well spent life, with the children who have done him credit. He makes his home with the oldest daughter, Carrie, now Mrs. August Brockhouse, whose husband lives on and manages the home place. His other children are Kate, Mrs. Henry Eckhoff, living a mile west of the home place; Henry of Chapin, who deals in grain and livestock; Louis P., a farmer living near Markham station; Lizzie, Mrs. Thomas Eller; William living two miles south of Chapin; Annie, Mrs. Charles Aufdekamp, living one mile south of the old home; Ida, Mrs. William Oberate of Jacksonville. Three children are dead, one of them, George, Jr., leaving a widow who lives a mile east of Chapin. Mr. Perbix also has 22 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

A short time since the writer had the pleasure of a visit with Louis who has a nice garden patch of 420 acres about a mile west of Markham, where he is very comfortably fixed. He has just erected a new house which is indeed a model and has but few equals in the county, as it is furnished with every convenience that a city residence has. He has in his concrete basement a gasoline engine and a storage battery into which he generates electricity with his engine and by that means has electric lights all over the house, his engine also doing the washing, the churning, wringing and pumping for the family. He has a pressure tank in the cellar into which he pumps air, having hot and cold water all over the house. He also has good drainage nearby which enables him to have plumbing of the most approved type, and surely is fixed to live.

Mr. Perbix is a successful farmer and takes good care of his land as do all men of his kind. He had a lot of wheat this year, both Turkey Red and soft, and as usual the Turkey Red was better than the other, yielding about 25 bushels to the acre while the soft yield was about half that. His oats yielded about 70 bushels to the acre, he using the Texas variety. For corn he likes the Yellow Dent very much altho he uses Boone County white to some extent. He only raises two crops of corn in succession and then the field goes into small grain and clover. Clover he raises mostly with wheat but he harrows it in, as he does not believe in throwing it on the ground and letting it lie there, altho it will sometimes do well that way. He feeds few cattle but turns his attention mostly to hogs. He prefers the old standard Poland China breed, which he says are good enough for him, taking care to get those of large frame, good bone and well put together. And he is also careful, as are all others, to avoid inbreeding. His hogs have suffered some from cholera and he finds vaccination a good thing but not a specific cure. He prefers to have his sows farrow in March and September and principally feeds tankage and corn. His pigs he weans at 12 weeks. The spring pigs he has run on clover pasture and in that way they get good balanced ration. He is now feeding his hogs some new corn. The hogs he markets at about 10 months of age at which age they usually weigh from 1200 to 250 lbs. He raises few other animals except for his own use; and in this manner he keeps up the fertility of his land and is one of Morgan county's successful farmers.

'A small thing to look for'

That phrase means a whole lot when you buy clothes. It refers to the Hart Schaffner & Marx label. It stands for all-wool quality, perfect tailoring, the best of everything.

So it's a big thing to find it, because these things are the biggest thing about the clothes you ought to wear.

GEORGE SIMPKIN HAS HAD EVENTFUL LIFE

Born in England He Came to This Country When Small—Served in the Army in the Civil War and is Now Enjoying the Fruits of an Honest Life.

One of the honored names in Morgan county is that of Simpkin, for it means a number of sturdy young men from the tight little island who came to this country to better their fortunes and at the same time to be very valuable additions to the communities in which they settled. One of these, George Simpkin, who resides a few miles southeast of the city, was born in Caton Carer, Yorkshire, England, April 28, 1840, and was the son of George and Mary Beckett Simpkin, a family highly respected and well known wherever they lived. He had one brother, Thomas, who settled in Buckhorn, and one brother who died young, one sister Frances, Mrs. John Adams of this city. When George was four years old his mother died and his paternal grandmother took charge of the children and was everything to them that heart could wish, raising them in the fear of the Lord, industrious, upright and straightforward.

When George was nine years old his father decided to remove to the new world as he had relatives already settled in the west part of the county. The grandmother was 79 years old at the time but vigorous and hearty. She was a sister of John Richardson, who settled in the early '30s in the west part of the county, and an aunt of Uncle Peter, Uncle Billy and Uncle Vincent Richardson, so well known during their lifetime. The parting from the old home was of course hard, although the children hardly realized what it meant, but it was hard indeed for the grandmother, but she undertook the task and did not complain but did her duty by the children who hold her in grateful remembrance.

Voyage a Tedium One.

In 1849 there were very few ships on the ocean and so the Simpkin family sailed from York on a sailing vessel with several hundred others. It was a good ship and a kind captain was in charge, but the voyage was tedious, taking 53 days from York to Quebec. When they boarded the ship Grandmother Simpkin went to one of the sailors and asked him for a glass of sea water. Looking at her in astonishment he told her she could have a tubful if she wanted it but could not imagine what she intended to make of it and was still more surprised when he saw her drink it. Shortly afterward she went to the rail and em-tioned her stomach completely and during the rest of the voyage was on her feet right along while much of the time the rest were prostrated with that awful feeling—seasickness.

They encountered two severe storms on the way, a few weeks apart, when the hatches were battered down and the passengers had all sorts of discomfort and privation, but they managed to survive. The ship supplied hardtack for food and that was all, the passengers being supposed to bring tea, coffee, sugar and meats with them. Grandmother Simpkin had no teeth for in those days false teeth were a rarity, and so the kind hearted captain bade the steward furnish her with flour which would make her more easily managed food than hardtack and but the rest of them to the hardtack to eat. One of the passengers was John Vasey, father of the John Vasey who now lives near the Point, and Grandmother Simpkin cared for him as well as for the other seafaring passengers. The father was not quite so sick as the boys but still he was unable to be about. Grandmother would watch her chance when the cook was not using his range and would manage to cook their meat and make what little tea and coffee she could, and as luxuries were not known, they were not so much missed. She also did the washing for her family.

Variation in Bill of Fare.

One day there was a slight variation in the bill of fare. The ship was moving very slowly and some of the passengers tried fishing over the side of the ship but they made little progress until the captain, who was more expert, cast his hook and hauled up a big fish which was divided among the family and it was a great treat. The water they took for drinking purposes was stored in hogheads and it was well enough for the first part of the voyage but after three or four weeks it was stale and very unpalatable and hard to drink. Coffee rather deadened the taste of it but tea was no good.

Anxiously the people watched for the shores of the new world and eagerly they looked for the time when they would leave their cramped quarters and walk on land again, but they were doomed to disappointment for just as they neared Quebec a dense fog dimmed everything. A pilot came out to meet them and guide them to shore, and he was strapped to the front of the vessel and watched carefully for other craft. Finally the fog lifted and no harm took place, but bells were rung and every possible care taken to avoid difficulty. When the fog lifted they saw many ships in their immediate vicinity and as it was Sunday there was great hilarity on board, people dancing and playing and having a good time generally.

But the greatest joy of the Simpkin family was the sight of land and to get on shore. Kind providence certainly preserved them for they had to go by water most of the way to their destination and going up to Toronto they were put into a cab in which they were driven to their destination. The trip was tedious, taking several weeks to get to their destination. They went from Toronto to Buffalo and then over the lakes to Chicago with very slow speed and arriving at that place they little thought what it would be one day. It was simply an insignificant town. There were some Canadians there with ponies and wagons delivering goods and everything was the most primitive that could be imagined. Sometimes one is tempted to think what they might have done if they had bought a few lots, but we can all see good things behind.

They left Chicago on a railroad made of wooden rails with tiny cars drawn by mules and it is unnecessary to say that the progress was not such as would have been made on the hammer at the present time. In this way they managed to travel quite a distance and by stage and other means finally drew up at LaSalle and there took a boat and eventually arrived at Naples. Then they felt they were near the end of their journey as several of the Richardson relatives met them and took them to their homes near where the Point is at present. They stayed there resting up and then went to Cass county to a man named John Deason, who had married Mr. Simpkin's sister but the latter was dead. There they remained for the winter, then went to Grigsby where they lived a year or so then back to the Point a few months and then the father bought the farm southeast of the city where now William Vasey lives. The dear old grandmother lived to be 89 years old and was buried within a few days of 90 when they were called to their long home.

Enlisted for War Service.

When the war broke out George Simpkin enlisted in September, 1861 in Co. K, 27th Illinois Infantry under Capt. Bozarth and for 11 months he bore the hardships, trials and battles of that active regiment, when failing health caused his discharge and he returned home with an honorable record.

In 1864 he was married to Sarah Delaney of a neighboring family and they lived with his father until 1887 when he bought the 60 acres which he now occupies. One daughter was born to them, Mrs. James Hemmrough and they have five grandchildren. Their home and life would be expected from one of the Simpkin family, a neat cottage, scrupulously clean and admirably kept, a dooryard with ornamental evergreens and outbuildings, and everything indicating thrift and plenty and good cheer. Mr. Simpkin has never tried for great things but he has believed more in careful and intensive farming and has achieved a worthy and honorable success, and can look back over a well spent life and feel that he has not lived in vain. He now rents the corn land and looks after the animals on the pasture. He says in active life he preferred Shorthorn cattle, Berkshire hogs and Cotswold sheep, and like many other natives of England he is partial to the humble animal that produces the wool we so much value. He says they are profitable and should be raised in larger numbers in this country, and especially does he say that there should be more stringent laws regarding dogs which are of little value while sheep are the enemy of the valuable animals which are so scarce here. Mr. Simpkin is a member of the Christian church, a life long Republican and a man honored and respected by all who know him.

ITALIAN MAKES RECORD FLIGHT

Covers 325 Miles in 251 Minutes Carrying Eight Passengers

Mineola, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Carrying eight passengers, Lieutenant Silva Resnati, arrived at the government aviation field here in his Saponi biplane at 4:21 o'clock this afternoon, completing a flight of about 325 miles from Hampton, Va., in four hours, eleven minutes.

According to officials of the Aero Club of America, the flight breaks all records in the United States for machines carrying two or more passengers. In 1916 a flight was made by a pilot and two passengers from Newport News to Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., a distance about 20 miles shorter than Lieutenant Resnati's achievement. The only flight with eight passengers made in this country before, the club's records show, was between Newport News and Baltimore. Resnati did not use a triplane in making the trip as intended. This machine, it was explained upon arrival here, has not yet been assembled at Hampton, but will be used on a trip to be made soon over the same route as that travelled today. The large bi-plane which Resnati piloted today has a spread of 85 feet while that of the triplane is more than 100 feet. The bi-plane is equipped with three motors and propellers.

Accompanying Resnati were Captain Capli, Lieutenant A. Tantino, Corporal A. G. Angello, of the Italian army; Captain A. W. Hill, Lieutenant M. W. Pollock and Lieutenant Erickson of the United States army, Giovanni Basso and F. Francisco Galletti.

A campaign for early shipment of Christmas packages was inaugurated at a joint meeting of the American Railway Association's car service committee of Chicago, Milwaukee and South Bend. Co-operation in this campaign was promised by representatives of the National Industrial Traffic League and the Chicago Association of Commerce.

Each railroad is to do everything possible to promote early shipments of Christmas packages, whether by mail or express according to a resolution adopted by the car service committee.

"There is at the present time a shortage of baggage car equipment that affects the handling of mails," said P. J. Schardt, Government Superintendent of railway mail service, "and this shortage will be felt more keenly with the approach of the holiday period, when the flow of mail increases far above normal."

"The selective army law has made serious inroads on our clerical force. Unless the public will take into consideration the shortage of equipment and of labor that the railway mail service will be confronted with during the holiday period, serious congestion and consequent delays in Christmas mails will result to say nothing of the disappointments to both senders and receivers of belated packages."

MACHINISTS ANSWER AGENT'S ADVERTISEMENT

Over Five Hundred Men Seek Work in Aeroplane Factory at Baltimore That Doesn't Exist.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23.—The police were called out tonight to corral 523 machinists who had gathered in union station to await the arrival of Frederick W. Niemann, an employment agent of Newark, N. J. The men arrived early this morning from Newark in answer to an advertisement in Newark papers calling for men to work in an airplane factory here. There is none here.

The men came on a special train after paying a $3 fee each to the Niemann agency and their railroad fare. An agent of the airplane factory was to meet them, but they were met by no one. Police Marshal Carter was notified and telegraphed to Newark.

Tonight Niemann arrived with about $1,200 which he said represented his part of the $3 fees turned over to him by Charles Skinner, one of his employees. Niemann said that a warrant had been sworn out for Skinner, who had disappeared, and that he knew nothing of the nature of the advertisement. The mechanics, a howling mob waited at the station to get at Niemann. Most of them had had little or nothing to eat and were in fighting humor. A detachment of police spirited Niemann and his $1,200 to a police station. The mob, getting word of it, marched thru the streets headed by a committee. They were forced into the police station yard and put under guard while the police, their committee and Niemann came to terms. Niemann said he would give each of the 523, two dollars and arrange to refund them their return transportation on their way back to Newark. The committee agreed to it and the men were paid and sent away. Most of them wandered around the streets for the night. Some said they would seek work here, while others expect to return to Newark.

WILL PERFECT HUMAN SALVAGE PROGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Details of a program of human salvage—physical, mental and spiritual—on behalf of the men of America who are injured in the war are to be perfected at the eighth annual clinical congress of surgeons which started today. Men prominent in medical circles in this and other countries are present, it being estimated that more than 3,000 surgeons will participate in the deliberations.

Why I Believe in Nuxated Iron

A Strength-Builder for the Nation

By E. Sauer, M. D.
Probably no remedy has ever met with such phenomenal success as has Nuxated Iron. It is conservatively estimated that over three million people annually are taking it in this country alone. It has been highly endorsed and used by former United States senators and members of congress; physicians who have been connected with well-known hospitals have prescribed and recommended it; Monseigneur Nannini, a prominent Catholic clergyman, recommends it to all members of the Catholic church. Former Health Commissioner Wm. R. Kerr, of Chicago, says it ought to be used in every hospital and prescribed by every physician. Sarah Bernhardt—"the Divine Sarah," the world's most noted actress, has ordered a large quantity sent to the French soldiers to help give them strength, power and endurance.

Dr. A. J. Newman, late police surgeon of the City of Chicago, and former house surgeon Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, says Nuxated Iron has proven through his own tests of it to excel any preparation he has ever used for creating red blood, building up the nerves, strengthening the muscles and correcting digestive disorders.

Dr. N. H. Hornstine for ten years physician in the department of public health and charities of Philadelphia says that tests made with Nuxated Iron on a number of stubborn cases where other tonics had failed absolutely convinced him of its remarkable and unusual power.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron, which has been used by former Members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and other prominent people with such surprising results, and which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older organic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach; on the contrary it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron, that they offer to forfeit $100 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 20 who lacks iron and increase their strength 100 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed by Lilly-Davis Drug Co., Armstrong and Armstrong, Gilbert's Pharmacy, J. A. Oltmeyer and Son and all good druggists.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Billious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.
Look at the tongue. Mother, if coated or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailments, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

PROF. CHRISTIE WRITES ON FARM ADVISORS

IS SUPT. OF DEPT. OF AGRICUL-TURAL EXTENSION OF INDI-ANA.

Recommends County Agent as Help to Farmer—Indiana Has Seventy-Two Such Men and State Has Enhanced Rural Prosperity in Great Measure During Recent Years.

Prof. Christie, superintendent of the Department of Agricultural Extension of Indiana, who was on the program of the 1916 chautauqua, has a national reputation and has made good in his work in a big way. Indiana during recent years has developed her agriculture, perhaps, more than any other state in the Union. Production has been greatly enhanced, country schools have been made real rural schools, and the civic and social conditions in the countryside have been bettered in every way.

In the following letter Prof. Christie says the county agent is a help to the farmer:

Mr. Frank J. Hehl,
Farmers' State Bank and Trust Co.,
Jacksonville, Ill.
Dear Mr. Hehl:

I learn with interest and pleasure that your county is soon to have a county agricultural adviser. Indiana has seventy-two such men, giving their entire time to the work and are helping to place agriculture on a firm basis and to have it meet in a larger way the demand for food. The farmers of the Mississippi valley have been called upon to furnish a large surplus of agricultural products, not only for our own people and our armies, but for the starving nations of Europe. Everyone of our men have rallied in a fine way to this task. They are willing and anxious to produce every possible pound of grain and meat.

Many of them find, however, that they are not doing as much as they might. They wish to know how they can do more. Experimental work and practical demonstrations in all parts of the state have proved conclusively that sixty and eighty bushels of corn can be raised on an acre of ground. Many acres are producing thirty and forty bushels. These farmers wish to know what they can do at once to improve their yields. The county agent is the medium through which they can secure help. In the feeding of live stock the average farmer requires about fourteen pounds of corn to produce a pound of beef. Good feeders are producing beef with nine pounds of corn. In the feeding of hogs where corn has been fed alone, 860 pounds of corn were required for 100 pounds of pork. Where the ration was properly balanced, it only required 360 pounds of grain for 100 pounds of pork. The county agent is the man who can take to these farmers the helpful information which will aid them in placing their business on a more profitable basis.

The county agents will assist in organizing the farmers and their wives into clubs and associations for the advancement of community interests. This work has been one of the best and most valuable carried on in our state. It is equally as important in Illinois. At this time when everyone is called upon to do their bit, it is absolutely necessary that they get together and organize for the task that is before them. Whether a man or woman individually believes in the county agent or not, they should get behind this movement for the reason that the government has asked that every county install a man who can help develop agriculture and increase the production and conservation of food stuffs. Not only does the government ask the county to do this, but through federal and state funds, it offers to help bear the burden. The question now is "Will the people cooperate or, in this crisis, are they going to go along in the usual way?" Farmers should rally at once and secure a capable, active county agent. —Wishing you every success and assuring you of our assistance, I am,

Very truly yours,

C. J. Christie,
Superintendent.

THE PATTERSON SHOWS
The managers of the Patterson shows are surely in hard luck in this city as the weather has been so unpropitious for them. They have a remarkably complete and attractive outfit and are worthy of patronage but the clerk of the weather is not favorable. Their people whom one meets about the city are courteous and well bred and show that they are connected with a profitable organization.

"Who Will Win
This Battle?"

Much of your comfort depends upon knowing that your system will perform its functions properly.

Your kidneys are the filters of the body. They become inactive and fail to eliminate the waste matter. This will throw the whole mechanism of the body out of order, thus toxic poisons can accumulate in the system and be as deadly as snake venom.

Besides causing the minor ailments of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backaches, neglect of the kidneys is apt to develop into more serious diseases, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

Did the body of toxic poisons—clean the bladder and cure the twinges of rheumatism with Anuric, and you win the battle of life.

Anuric was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and has benefited thousands of sufferers as well as appeared and eliminated the ravages of the more serious kidney diseases. Now procurable at drug stores, or send Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

If you have rheumatism or kidney trouble, why not let Dr. Pierce's Anuric (double strength) win the battle?

CHICAGO, ILL.—"Just a few lines in regard to Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets which I took for kidney trouble. I am glad to recommend them to everybody. I know that they are good or I would not recommend them. After taking a few bottles I saw that the swelling was going down so I continued to use. I have quit taking them now and am cured—getting along fine and strong."

"One old lady, 65 years old, to whom I have recommended Anuric says that it did her good, took the swelling out of her feet."—REDD JONES, 6328 S. Seeley Ave.

FIGHT
FOR YOUR LIFEDuty Demands
Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ill health. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to ill after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypochondria ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-steppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains these mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin and iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and the organs and ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, sallow pale complexion that "all in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin and iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin and iron peptonate laden blood—steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any age.

This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin restores the body's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and painless way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin women and girls. Their blood filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.

Hypoferrin may be had at your drug store or direct from us for $1.00 per package. It is well worth the price. The Des Moines Review Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

A County Agent In Every Connty

(By G. I. Christie)

Recently Appointed by Governor Goodrich to Take Charge of Increased Campaign in Indiana.

CHRISTIE ON PLANS.

How Work May Be Pushed in the Schools and by County Agents.

We have agriculture in our schools, and among other things we teach corn germination. We have those boys make corn germinators to test their corn. They are told that it only takes 14 ears of corn to plant an acre; if there is a good average yield of 70 bushels per acre every ear planted in the spring means five bushels in the fall. The boy gets that fixed on his mind. He tells Dad about it, and pretty soon Dad says, "I guess we'd better test our corn." That is how agricultural schools reach out into the community. They also study the stand of corn. There are 3,500 hills on an acre. With two stalks of corn in each of the 3,500 hills, there are 7,000 stalks on an acre. If an ear of corn that weighs a pound grows on each stalk, there are 7,000 pounds of corn, which at 70 pounds per bushel gives 100 bushels of corn per acre. What is the average yield? They will study this and find that the yield is 35 bushels, 40 bushels or 50 bushels per acre. What is the matter? These boys and girls get down and study. They ask questions and he begins to think and before they get thru, the boys are interested in the farm.

The work in agriculture in the schools will be of greatest value and mean most to boys and girls when the lessons and principles taught in the classroom and laboratories can find application in the work of the boys and girls on the farm and in the home. This home work of the boys and girls should be placed on a project basis, should be supervised by the school instructor and should receive school credit.

Teachers to Work Twelve Months. The agricultural instructors should be hired on a 12-months' basis. These teachers will use the summer months in directing and supervising the work of boys and girls in the home and on the farm. Corn growing, pig raising, fruit canning and other lines of work will be carried on by the children under the guidance of those teaching them during the school year. Such work is of untold value. There is incentive for boys and girls to apply directly to the teachings of the classroom and to do well in every detail of the work of the year. They learn that in definite pieces of work. They learn that in definite pieces of work. They prove the value of scientific methods. They demonstrate that farming is not mere drudgery, but a business demanding and paying for the best brains and efforts of the best men and women. Furthermore, when a teacher spends the summer working with the pupils and parents a different viewpoint is gained than if he or she at the close of the school term, leaves the community to spend the vacation at some resort. As a result of this home project supervision, the work of the following year in the classroom will be practical and related to the interests of the community.

However, there is a man that we can not help directly thru the schools, and that is the man behind the plow, the man that must produce the three meals a day, the man that must keep the wheels moving—the farmer himself. Provision has been made for a county agent, a man who will take this information on cattle feeding, hog feeding, soils and other subjects and sit down with the farmer and figure out his local problems and help him as best he can. We have in Indiana 35 such men and they are working hard and are accomplishing a great good.

County Agent Work Valuable. One Indiana county agent was called to advise a farmer on sowing 80 acres of thin land to wheat. Since the land was very poor and undrained and the season late, the agent advised the sowing of crimson clover (an entirely new crop to that section) instead of wheat. The farmer compromised, sowing 40 acres in clover and 40 acres in wheat. The wheat, badly winter killed, and was plowed up this spring and planted to corn. Due to wet weather, the corn was not planted until after June 15, which does not insure a maximum crop. On the other hand, the farmer has already harvested $1,000 worth of clover seed from the 40 acres sown to this crop. While this individual farmer benefited in a large financial way from the advice of the agent, the whole community will be benefited and the increased wealth to the county will be many times greater than the agent's salary.

Another agent organized the farmers of one town to eradicate hog Indiana farmers a loss of many millions of dollars. In 1914, before the organization was formed, the farms of the township had 3,001 hogs; 528 were vaccinated and 357 died, meaning a direct loss of approximately $3,370. In 1915, after an organization of all the farmers had been effected and a study made of hog production and prevention of cholera, the farmers of the township produced 4,075 hogs, of which number 486 were vaccinated and 150 died—a direct loss from cholera of approximately $1,500. In this township alone, with practically the same number of brood sows, the number of pigs produced was increased by more than 1,000, while the loss from cholera was reduced to the extent of $2,070. Surely the work of the agent would be counted a large financial gain to the farmers and to the county.

We are convinced that there is enough information in our Department of Agriculture and experiment stations if taken out and applied on the farms to double the production of this country, to make the land bloom like a rose, to give us the foodstuffs that will feed our increased millions of people in an adequate way. The county agent offers a medium thru which can be accomplished this work.

Possible to Grow More Cereals.

The average yield of wheat in the United States for the past ten years was 14.8 bushels per acre. A few years ago the yield of wheat in England and Germany was really lower than that now found in the United States. Thru fertilization and a better crop system these countries have been able gradually to increase the average yield of the wheat crop until at this time it ranges about 25 bushels per acre. On the farm of Purdue University, where conditions are similar to those of a large area of the wheat lands, thru a good rotation of crop and proper fertilization the average yield of wheat for the past 20 years has reached 28 bushels per acre. These with many other examples clearly demonstrate that it is possible to increase materially the yield of wheat throughout the country. Again, the importance of securing an increased yield is readily recognized. An increase of five bushels per acre on the 60,000,000 acres of wheat now grown in the United States would result at $1 per bushel in an increased wealth of $300,000,000, and at the same time do much to meet the demand for bread.

In states of the Central West, corn is "King of Crops" and yet the average yield per acre for the past ten years was only 31.5 bushels. Good lands in all of these states have yielded 60, 70 and 80 bushels per acre. To lower the average yield of corn to 31.5 bushels, thousands of farms have yielded far less than 30 bushels per acre, which makes the crop most unprofitable.

To bring before corn growers the fact that the yield of corn can be materially and profitably increased, demonstration work was started in Indiana, where conditions are similar to those of the Corn Belt. Two hundred and thirty eight farmers each grew five acres of corn with a view of demonstrating the amount of corn which could be produced. Notwithstanding the drought and other unfavorable conditions, 21 of these farmers were able to grow more than 100 bushels of corn per acre. This yield was far above the average of the crop on the several farms on which the plots were grown and more than double the average yield of the counties in which the crops were produced. The average of the 238 contestants was 72.4 bushels per acre, or just about twice the average of the state. When it is remembered that the United States grows annually nearly 106,000,000 acres of corn, it is readily appreciated that an increase of five to twenty bushels per acre means much to the increased wealth of the country.

J. BY VALESKA SURATT

YOU can say good-bye now to all the old drudgery and irritation of skin due to present methods of removing hair. A few drops of a wonderful liquid make every hair seem to melt away into nothingness and leave the skin gloriously clean and soft, without a sign of having used anything at all for removing superfluous hair. Here is the way: Just moisten the hairs with sulfo solution, which you can obtain from your druggist for one dollar. In a very few moments the hairs will seem to just roll off, loose from the skin. It is so easy to do compared with the old methods, with their objectionable odor and "sting" to do beforehand. Try it. The styles of today with the transparent gowns and low cut waists absolutely demand the use of a superfluous hair remover. This formula can be used with perfect safety on the most delicate skin. Use it and you will improve your appearance many fold.

BUDDY—Mudding and general poor complexion that nothing else in the world seemed to affect have disappeared completely in just a very few days by a simple mixture which I have recommended to my friends with remarkable results. Pour the contents of a one-ounce package of sintonine in a pint of water and add two tablespoonfuls of glycerine. Rub this cream well into the skin frequently and you will see a tremendous difference in several days.

MISS H. L. C.—You can get rid of blackheads while bathing your face. It is remarkably simple. By pouring some powdered norexin on a wet cloth and rubbing the blackheads with it you will be able to remove them all in a few moments. Don't fail to try it. Get the norexin at any drug store.

MISS WRINKLES—Here is a wrinkle secret which has meant a fortune to many a woman. It has the effect of making the skin plump and youthful, remarkably vigorous and fresh. You will positively get the same results as any one else has. Try it and you will see. Mix this yourself at home in a few moments. Get two ounces of glycol at the drug store for fifty cents. Mix this with two tablespoonfuls of glycerine in half a pint of water. Use the cream very freely every day, and I'll warrant your friends will quickly see a difference in your face.

MRS. A. P. O.—Dust development has been obtained with startling results in some cases with a mixture of two ounces of rustone, which can be secured at any drug store, dissolved with half a cup of sugar in a pint of water. Of this, take two teaspoonfuls after meals and before retiring.

VERY THIN—I assure you that you can make your hair grow long, silky and beautiful, stop it from falling—make it quickly, exceptionally in vigor and growth. Make up a mixture of one ounce of beta-quinol, which your druggist will supply you for fifty cents, and in a pint of water, or half a pint each of water and alcohol if preferred. This makes a hair-growing marvel. It is also much cheaper than any of the hair treatments you buy in prepared form. Use it and you'll be a very much surprised woman.

DISAPPOINTED—If you can't get the norexin for the complexion and the price, which is fifty cents for either article to "Sintonine" by Valeska Suratt, Thompson Bldg., Chicago, and my secretary will send it to you by mail at once.

MISS N. O. N.—The use of santonine dissolves away all scalp scales and fatty accumulations in a magic way and leaves the scalp and hair in a most glorious condition of absolute cleanliness. As a head-wash it cannot be excelled. Use a teaspoonful of it in half a cup of water. You can get enough for twenty-five cents to last for over a dozen shampoos.

MRS. G. H. H.—Ordinary face powders often lie in spots on the skin. That's why I had my own face powder made up, finer in texture than anything yet produced. It is free from that annoying chalkiness, and is sold as "Valeska Suratt Face Powder" at drug stores, in white, flesh and brunette tints, for fifty cents a box.

ALSEY BRICK BUSINESS SHOWS RAPID GROWTH

Output of Plant Established by H. T. McLaughlin and Others Now 20,000 Daily—Capacity Will be Increased—Government Orders Received—Houses Built for Workmen.

A recent issue of the Winchester Times presents an article outlining in a very interesting way the growth of the Alsey Brick & Tile Co. This business is operated by H. T. McLaughlin and others and has grown from a comparatively modest beginning until the daily output is 20,000 brick. The capacity this year is to be greatly increased. The company recently received a large rush order from the U. S. government and the names of some customers in widely separated localities are mentioned in the Times article.

"Tuesday we had occasion to make a visit to Alsey, and while there were shown thru the works of the Alsey Brick and Tile Company, operated by Henry T. McLaughlin, Nobel H. McLaughlin and Mrs. Ova McLaughlin Breckon, who are the sole owners of this extensive manufacturing plant. This plant indeed is one of the big institutions of Scott county, if not the biggest. They give employment at the present time to more than fifty men, in the various departments of the factory and in the clay mines. The present output is 20,000 brick daily, about 6,000,000 per year, and they have established a trade that calls for this output as fast as the brick can be produced.

"A brief summary of this plant may not be amiss. In order to meet the demands for their product new machinery has been installed this year, and four new 30 foot kilns built this summer, making twelve kilns in all. A new drier was built, containing eight tunnels, accommodating 60,000 brick at a time. There are three presses, two for making square brick, and one for special brick, such as arch brick, special designs, etc., with automatic cutter attached. This latter is a special heavy duty brick machine. The machinery about the plant is operated by a 150 horse power Atlas steam engine, with two Atlas 85 horse power boilers attached. The factory is equipped with a repair and model shop, so that everything needed for immediate use can be repaired when needed.

"This company aside from manufacturing an A. No. 1 fire clay brick, are constantly receiving orders for special fire clay tile for building incinerators for burning garbage, furnace tile, heavy, special shaped pieces, among their customers being the Commonwealth Edison company of Chicago, the St. Clair Refining Co., of East Chicago, Ind.

"Among the exhibits we also saw some specially designed heavy pieces ordered for a paper mill.

"Among their many large customers abroad, and who are constantly buying their products, may be mentioned the following:

"Standard Oil Company, Neodesha, Kansas and Wood River, Illinois.
"Inter Ocean Refining Company, Joliet, Illinois.
"Standard Salt & Cement Co., Duluth, Minn.
"Minnesota Steel Co., Duluth, Minn.
"Zenith Furnace Co., Duluth, Minn.
"Twin City Brick Co., St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn.
"Minneapolis Steel & Machinery Co., Minneapolis, Minn.
"Charcoal Iron Co., Bessemer and Marquette, Mich.
"Wisconsin Pipe and Fuel Co., Eau Claire, Wis.
"W. H. Pipkorn Co., Milwaukee, Wis.
"South Side Malleable Casting Co., Milwaukee, Wis.
"Keeler Lumber & Fuel Co., Beloit, Wis.
"Moline Plow Co., Moline, Ill.
"Mueller Lumber Co., Davenport, Iowa and Moline, Ill.
"Astrid S. Rosing, Chicago, Ill.
"Simpson, McLure Lumber Co., Galesburg, Ill.
"Monmouth Clay Manufacturing Co., Monmouth, Ill.
"Streator Clay Manufacturing Co., Streator, Ill.

There are other customers scattered all over Illinois and Iowa and also in Oklahoma, Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri, Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Indiana and Pennsylvania. "Undoubtedly the little town of Alsey feels proud of this business enterprise within her midst, and well she may. It was no small undertaking for Mr. McLaughlin to develop this business, and now that it has been put on a good solid footing the company's endeavors should be fostered and encouraged at every point. Noble H. McLaughlin, who has charge of the business of the firm, is a strong and forceful factor in its success.

"While we were in their office we were shown a rush war order for 25,000 of 'Alsey No. 1 Fire Brick,' just received from the United States government and read: 'War Order No. 60213. Rush order for 25,000 fire brick.' In these war times it is as important to have capable young men at the head of business enterprises like the Alsey Brick and Tile Co., as it is to have the young men at the front, and in this connection Mr. H. T. McLaughlin stated it was next to impossible for the company to dispense with Noble H. McLaughlin's services at the present time as he was more familiar with the details of the business and the duties devolved upon him than any one would be that could be secured to fill his place.

"An order for two car loads of brick for the state institutions at Jacksonville was among the many very recent orders received.

"January next the capacity of the daily output will be doubled what they are turning out at present, thus making a yearly production of 12,000,000 brick.

"Another of Mr. McLaughlin's enterprises has been to build homes for his workmen. He has had erected 21 new 4-room houses, at the edge of the town, about two blocks from the factory site, together with building a beautiful modern residence for his own use. The excavation for the 22nd new house was being done this week. Altogether he has built ten of these new house this summer, and he intends building ten more on this townsite he laid out. If this kind of business enterprise is not worthy of encouragement, what is?"

INDEPENDENCE SCHOOL ONE OF COUNTY'S BEST

New Furniture, Modern Heating Plant and Various Other Improvements Add Materially to Efficiency of School—Library to be Enlarged

A few miles northwest of the city is a school with a very high sounding name, reminding one of the immortal declaration of our forefathers promulgated to the world July 4, 1776. The school in question is called Independence and it is well located in a fine community. The teacher is Miss Alberta Quigg and she is a young woman popular in her profession and has her school well in hand. This school house has one of the largest playgrounds in the county and the pupils could play baseball, football or most anything else they chose on their ample premises. A few more shade trees would be a good investment, but otherwise the school house is in good condition, with new furniture, modern heating plant and other accessories. There is a good cabinet organ and a small reference encyclopedia, also abundant maps and a small library.

Miss Quigg said it was her intention to have a box social and make a sum of money for some more books and pictures. They have two pictures on the walls, now, one of Lincoln and one of McKinley, and of course more would be very well used. The visitor was a little unfortunate in one respect as the school had been closed owing to infantile paralysis and not all of the pupils had yet returned. However, they expect to do so in a short time. The pupils were bright and pleasant and asked some questions after the visitor had finished talking. They were very courteous in their conduct and the visit with them was a pleasant one. The directors of this school are Edwin Deaton, John Hunter and Chester Wilson, all well known in the county, and they have the good of the school at heart. The pupils are: Helen Dodsforth, Glenn Strickler, Helen Deaton, Lloyd Smith, Edward Deaton, Loren Moody, Russell McGee, Herbert Dodsforth, Helen Long, Myron Long, Glenn Dodsforth, Raymond Long, George Wilson, Dorothy Deaton, Louise Nicholson, Francis Cox, Howard Dodsforth, Rosa Taylor, Mary Taylor, Margaret Deaton, Wilbur Patterson, Russell Mason, Elsie Greenwood, Norma Strickler, Hazel Strickler.

Properly Protected Plates

The two most important elements in a battery are—the plates and the insulation that keeps the plates apart.

Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation properly protects the plates from contact with one another.

Electricity can't work through the rubber, the acid electrolyte doesn't corrode it. And thousands of tiny threads make possible the vitally essential movement of the electrolyte from plate to plate.

WEST LIBERTY A FINE SCHOOL

Has a Fine Plant, Interesting Pupils and Good Teacher.

A short time since the writer had occasion to visit in the vicinity of Markham and of course he could hardly be expected to pass West Liberty school without a visit, although it is hardly their turn, but they treated him so pleasantly when there the last time that he went in anyhow. The school has lost quite a number of its eighth graders, who have graduated to higher places of learning, but still a goodly number of young people are left for Miss Margaret E. Richards to guide in the paths of knowledge. The pupils have lost none of their brightness and good manners and certainly it is a pleasure to visit them, as it is the directors, Messrs. John Boddy, Allison Thomason and A. E. Sawtell, are wide awake gentlemen and have been generous in providing for the education of the rising generation in the vicinity. Mr. Thomason has no one to take his place, but he is just as much interested as he had. Mr. Boddy has several children who are pupils there and so has Mr. Sawtell.

The school house and plant have already been written up and the matter will not be repeated here, suffice it to say that it has no superior in the county, but for fear of Miss Keyton at East Liberty, it will be said that her school house is hard to excel because nobody dares say that anything is superior to East Liberty. But West Liberty has all the conveniences of a first class school in every respect. The visit was pleasant and the pupils paid the usual good attention and asked a number of questions at the close of the talk. It was a great pleasure to be with them. The pupils are: Roy Watt, Phoebe Boddy, Elsie York, Jennie Worrall, Grace Boddy, Pearl Brummett, Robby York, Louise Tobin, Marie Tobin, Ruth Phils, Curtis Barfield, Eva Barfield, Paul Watt, Ellsworth Marshall, Lillie Brummett, Fred Harris, John Edward Tobin, Vivian York.

H. H. BANCROFT TALKED TO HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

Pupils of the high school were addressed Tuesday morning by Horace H. Bancroft, who spoke along the line of food conservation as urged by the U. S. Food Administration. This week has been set aside for a special campaign to secure the pledge of every family in the country to aid in the conservation plans. Each family signing such a pledge will be given a window card to indicate that it is a member of the U. S. Food Administration, and will also receive a card containing suggestions for conserving the nation's food supply.

An effort is being made to secure the co-operation of public school pupils and teachers in the work, and Mr. Bancroft emphasized the point that all can aid materially in this endeavor. There are 22,500,000 school children in the United States and if every one of the 700,000 teachers who are in charge of these children will impress upon her pupils the importance of the conservation campaign, the result should be far-reaching.

Mr. Bancroft said it was not necessary that people should eat less food but merely substitute commodities which are plentiful for those which are not. For example, people should eat more corn, rye and oatmeal and less wheat; more fish, fowl and eggs and less beef and pork; more vegetable oils and less animal fat; more vegetables and less sugar, meat and fats. Economy in the use of foods, the elimination of all waste, was another point made.

NOT the largest but the latest assortment of young men's OVERCOATS are shown by FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store.

FAMOUS "FORTY NINER" DIES AT UTAH HOME

WAS UNCLE OF M. L. HILDRETH OF THIS CITY

M. T. Gisborn was called "Wizard of the Hills of California and Utah"—Has Utah Town Named for Him—Was Ninety Three Years Old.

Word has been received in Jacksonville by M. L. Hildreth of 812 Hardin avenue of the death of his uncle, M. T. Gisborn, which occurred at a recent date at Salt Lake City, Utah. Mr. Gisborn lived at Edina, Mo., more than fifty years ago. A brother of Mr. Matthew Hildreth of this city, J. E. Hildreth, still resides at that place. Mr. Gisborn was ninety three years of age at the time of his death. The Salt Lake City Telegraph has the following on Mr. Gisborn's life:

"The oldest mining man in Utah is dead. In the passing yesterday at a local hospital of M. T. Gisborn, wizard of the hills of Utah and California, the state lost its oldest and perhaps at one time the most active mining operator. When almost ninety one years old he underwent a critical operation on his eyes to remove a growth which developed following the removal of a cataract. He never fully recovered from the effects of this operation. This growth greatly impaired his sight and for several weeks past he has been almost totally blind. The famous operator struggled vainly to the last to regain his health in the hope of resuming active charge of his mining interests at Gisborn, Utah.

"Mr. Gisborn was the original locator of the Cerro Gordo mine at Keeler, Cal., which is credited with the production of more than $12,000,000. He was the owner of extensive interests at Mercur and Duck Creek, Nev. He built the first toll gate in Utah at Stockton, which he later gave to Toole county. He was active in Virginia City, Nev. in the early days of that famous district."

Mr. M. L. Hildreth expects to go to Salt Lake City in the near future to look after matters in the interest of his uncle's estate.

RECORD BREAKING FREIGHT TRAFFIC.

With an increase of only 1.3 per cent in locomotives and only 2.3 per cent in freight cars, the railroads handled 20.2 per cent more than in July, 1915, and 49 per cent more than in July, 1914.

For this record breaking accomplishment the Railroad's War Board gives much credit to the co-operation of shippers and receivers of freight, in loading and unloading cars more promptly and heavier.

JAIL BREAKER ARRESTED IN SPRINGFIELD

Marion Corbridge, who broke jail Monday night, arrested in Springfield—Will be Brought Back Today.

Marion Corbridge, who escaped from the county jail Monday night was captured in Springfield by Officer Foster of the Springfield police force Tuesday afternoon. Deputy Sheriff Andrews went to Springfield Tuesday evening and will return Corbridge to this city this morning.

Corbridge who was in jail awaiting trial for stealing a horse and buggy in the Concord neighborhood last July induced a grandnephew of Sheriff Graff who is visiting at the jail with his mother to get him the keys to the cell. Corbridge unlocked the door and walked out.

Sheriff Graff searched high and low for Corbridge Monday night but could not locate him. He learned Tuesday that Corbridge slept at the home of his brother but did not go there until some time Tuesday morning. Corbridge went to Springfield on the Wabash Tuesday morning and went to the residence of a former resident who notified Sheriff Graff. The sheriff asked the police in Springfield to arrest the jail breaker.

TELLS OF REGISTRATION WORK IN SPRINGFIELD

Mrs. Stuart Brown of Springfield Tells Morgan County Captains of Women's Registration About Work in Sangamon County Meeting Held at Home of Mrs. T. J. Pitner.

Tuesday afternoon about forty of the captains of registration for Jacksonville met at the home of Mrs. T. J. Pitner to discuss plans for the work of registering the women of the county. Miss Elson Barnes, registrar for Morgan county, presided at the meeting, and Mrs. Stuart Brown, chairman of the Springfield division of the woman's committee, Council of National Defense, made a report of the work in her district.

The original date planned for registration of women was Sept. 17, and Mrs. Brown had her registrars ready for that date. So the state board thought it best for Springfield to do her registration of women on that date, in order to have the plan tried out in some one city in the state and thus be a help to the rest in undertaking the work. Mrs. Brown came to Jacksonville to tell something about the working out of the plan in her division, and reported the registration of women as nearing completion in Springfield. A street car strike and the unfortunate selection of wash day for registration made the result less successful than was hoped. The house to house canvass is still in progress with thirty-two of the precincts completed. More than 3,000 women have been registered in Springfield. The registration cards are proving most practical and are used every day. Such volumes of patriotic zeal will find a useful outlet. The Red Cross used them at once, compiling a card catalog of those offering time for sewing and knitting. Now they are in a quandary to know where to get enough yarn or cloth to supply so many patriotic women.

Cards are kept on file for every woman, whether she offers service or not. The best registration was done in the precincts having the best organization. Only one card was reclaimed by its signer. One timid little woman had been told that she would be taken to the trenches in France to serve, and fearfully demanded the return of her card. The great majority of women wanted to register and show their patriotism by the offer of some kind of service. The social service workers have also made a card index of those offering service in their line.

Springfield women are doing a great deal with the liberty loan and their thrift club is meeting with great success. One dollar down and $2 a week until the bond is paid, proves a most tempting investment. Every woman's organization has been addressed by speakers for the liberty loan. The entire office force was recruited from those offering service on the registration cards.

The cards have brought to light many valuable women as helpers, who have done little civic or philanthropic work before.

One woman came to register and said she had a little baby so could not offer service, but donated $25 to help the cause.

Mrs. Brown spoke of the neighborhood meetings planned for the school houses of Chicago and Springfield. She explained the purposes of registration.

She feels that the registration cards are going to be more and more valuable as the war goes on, and urges the captains of registration to do all the preliminary work possible to arouse interest and get the women out for a 100 per cent registration on Nov. 7.

BACK FROM THE WEST.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tremblett have returned from an extensive western tour much pleased with their trip. They first went to North Yakima, Washington, where Mrs. Tremblett's brothers Henry and Cyrus Sanderson, live and where they saw the fabulous fruits of that favored region. Mr. Tremblett has pears weighing a pound and says quantities of the wild fall apples go to waste for want of a market. The choice picked fruit brings the high prices well known all over the land as the fruit growers of that region have an organization whose label is a guarantee and the most scrupulous care is taken to maintain the good name of the body. Mrs. Tremblett's brothers have made good out there and have extensive orchards or ranches as they are known there, and are doing finely with them.

At Lincoln, Nebraska, they visited their daughter, Mrs. Elsie Rheland, who is pleasantly situated in the flourishing capital of the state. At Omaha they visited Mrs. Tremblett's sister, Mrs. Jessie Cunningham and had a pleasant time in the great metropolis of the state west of the Missouri. It is the first vacation Mr. Tremblett has taken in a long time and he feels much refreshed by the rest and change.

RESPONSIBILITY OF FATHERS, SERMON THEME

Evangelist Hanley Deals With Responsibility of Fathers Tuesday Night—Miss Virginia Booth Chibborn Sang Solo—Interest Increasing in Services.

HANLEY-FISHER REVIVAL ANNOUNCEMENTS TODAY.

10:00 a. m. Store Meeting at Tomlinson's Clothing store.
All men invited. Fisher will sing. Hanley will give a business talk.

6:00 p. m. Luncheon in the Grace church basement for High School Girls. Miss Robertson will conduct a "Question Box."
7:30 p. m. Service at Grace church for everybody. Sermon by Dr. Hanley on "Eternity."

Miss Booth Chibborn who held a meeting here last winter was an honored visitor at the Revival meeting last evening. She occupied a seat on the platform and sang with impressive effect a beautiful solo.

In the song service which preceded the sermon several old favorites were sung, "Precious Name," "Come Home," "Oh, How I Love Jesus," and "I'm Going all the way with Him."

Mr. Fisher sang the Sparrow song with his usual power and grace. Mr. Voyles and Mr. Fisher sang a duet of which Mr. Hanley is especially fond entitled, "Just outside the door." Mr. Voyles' mother is visiting him from Decatur and was cordially greeted by the people who have been enjoying her son's musical genius during these past weeks.

Dr. Hanley delivered a sermon adapted to "Father's Night," taking as his subject, "The Father Who Failed."

He spoke of the great emphasis which is being placed on the man side of religion. It is easier to win men than women these days, all great evangelists are finding, "You'll never get the boys of a community any higher than the men." God's great battles must have manhood. The women alone will never save this world.

Fathers need to realize their great responsibility. "You can lead a boy anywhere but you can't drive a boy an inch." We need to take better care of the souls of our children. Make a chum of your son.

He read the Parable of the Prodigal Father, commenting upon its important lessons. He also told a touching story from "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush" about the recalculation of Flora Campbell.

He closed with an appeal to the men. Many pledged themselves to live a better life and to do more for their fellow men than ever before.

Some Advance announcements concerning the campaign are as follows:

Thursday after school Mr. Fisher will rehearse the children of the Booster's choir.

Friday is Young People's night. Delegates are invited to attend from all the educational institutions of the city.

Saturday will be Children's night. The Booster chorus will perform. Sunday night the men will hold a meeting in Grace church.

A MOTHER'S MEETING

For some time it has been the desire on the part of some ladies to form an organization of wives and mothers of the soldiers defending the country and to that end a meeting was held at the public library yesterday afternoon. The notice was short and the weather inclement and the attendance was smaller in consequence than a good many were present. Mrs. P. W. Fox acted as chairman of the meeting and Mrs. James Watt was chosen secretary. The matter was quite freely discussed the object being to add as much as possible to the brightness of the lives of the dear ones wearing the soldier's uniform. The enterprise was discussed informally and it was decided to try to work up a better attendance before attempting a formal organization and to that end. Another meeting has been called for Wednesday Oct. 31, at 2:30 p. m. at the library building.

THEN AND NOW

George Blair in cleaning out some old papers recently found a Chicago Tribune of April 1864. In the paper was the following item:

"Ballooning in the army has been voted a failure and all aerial apparatus belonging to the government has been sold at public auction. Thus goes another of the humbugs introduced into the army by the hero of the changing base."

If the man who wrote that were alive now what would he think. With the various kinds of flying machines and the great dirigibles balloons the army of the present would be helpless without the aid it receives from the air.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father.

MISS MAYFIELD DIES AT COUNTRY HOME

Passed Away at 6 O'clock Tuesday Evening—Was Third of Family to Die Within a Few Weeks of Each Other.

Miss Mary Mayfield died at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening after an illness of long duration. The passing of Miss Mayfield makes the third time that death has entered the home in the past month.

Mrs. Mayfield died first and a few days later a son, Wellington Mayfield passed away. Deceased was the daughter of Milton and Margaret Mayfield and was born on the old Mayfield homestead, two and one half miles northeast of Franklin. Early in life her parents moved to Jacksonville and the greater part of her life was spent in this city.

She received her early education in the public schools and later graduated from Illinois Woman's college. She was a member of Central Christian church, having united with that body when a child.

During many years of her life she was in poor health. She traveled extensively and visited many specialists in the hope of regaining her health but to no avail. She was of retiring disposition but made many friends. Her last illness began last February when she was taken ill at the same time that her mother was stricken and has been declining since.

Miss Mayfield is survived by one sister, Miss Sarah Mayfield who resides at the family home and one brother, Goudy Mayfield who resides in Chicago but was at her bedside when she died.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

WILL BUY LIBERTY BONDS.

D. E. Sweeney returned last night from Belleville where he went to attend a quarterly meeting of the officers of the Catholic Knights of Illinois. The officers meet each quarter to audit the books and to give advice as to investment of funds. The society had several thousand dollars accruing from interest at this time and the custodian was instructed to purchase Liberty Bonds. It has been the custom of the society heretofore to purchase municipal bonds but now that the government is making an appeal it was decided to buy government Liberty Bonds. Mr. Sweeney said that at the beginning of the year there would be several thousand dollars more from interest and that the instruction to the custodian is to invest all of the revenue of the society from this time forward in Liberty Bonds.

Chiropractic the Golden Gate Way to Health

Chiropractic is the knowledge, not theory or belief, of philosophy of the cause of disease, the science of knowing how, and the art and ability to adjust it.

The human brain is where the life currents are concentrated. The spinal cord and nerves are the purveyors of this mental force.

If brain emits, spinal cord conveys, nerves transmit, and tissues, organs and viscera receive this life current, health is the product.

Obstruct the transmission of currents and disease is the product.

Body plus life equals health. Body minus life equals death.

Disease is the abnormal fluctuation between these quantities, caused by varying degrees of pressure upon nerves, interfering with transmission.

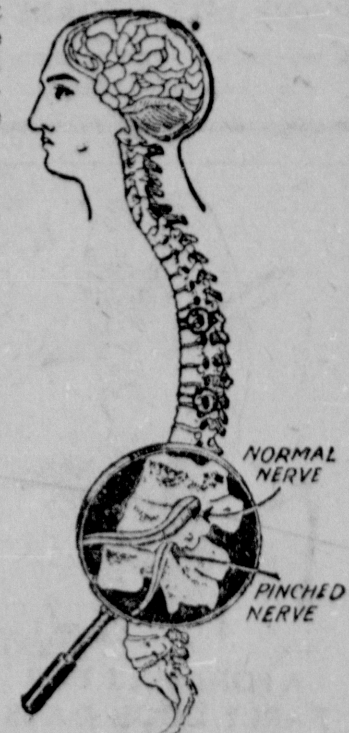

We know why, where and how to remove the pressure, which again permits the normal transmission of life currents, which in its turn results in the renewal of strength to the tissues, and the eradication of disease.

Health is the restoration of currents, not the stimulation or diminution of how little does exist. STOP TAKING DRUGS, they are unnecessary! AVOID THE KNIFE, it is useless in 95 per cent of cases. If you are sick, no matter what or where your ailment, investigate; we can prove that Chiropractic is right, and applicable to your case.

My record of successful achievements stands as a safeguard to you. You can place your case in my hands with perfect confidence. Consultation will cost you nothing.
